

I urge the committee to follow its own mandate and mission to keep open competition to facilitate diverse ideas and exchanges of opinions that makes democracy possible. With consolidation the public loses each time another voice, another view, another chance for improvement. Thank you